

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my time at home. For example, I used to receive 15 calls per week, now I only receive one. I deeply resent uninvited commercial intrusions into my private life. Thank you for your attention to this very bothersome matter.